

International events on exchange of experience to be held under the NBU's initiative in 2025

No.	Period and format of event	Event name	Event details
6	May–June, Kyiv, Ukraine, a hybrid format	Annual Research Conference of the National Bank of Ukraine	Objective: to bring together leading experts and representatives of central banks, the academic community, think tanks, and international organizations to discuss and resolve issues related to the activities of central banks. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• use of artificial intelligence in central banks</li> <li>• comprehensive approach to the central bank's policy</li> <li>• other topics covering specific areas of the central bank's activities.</li> </ul> Participants: representatives of central banks, academic community, and international financial organizations
7	September, Kyiv, Ukraine, a hybrid format	International Research Conference on Money &amp; Banking: History of Savings and Charity	Objective: to create a permanent platform for fostering scientific discussions and publishing research on topical issues related to the history of money circulation and banking in Europe. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• money museums within national banks from the perspective of the contemporary museum environment and modern forms of museum work</li> <li>• history of banks and banking as a central theme for money museums.</li> </ul> Participants: specialists in the history of cash circulation and banking, economic historians, banknote designers, museum experts, museum specialists from national banks
8	October–November, Kyiv, Ukraine, virtual	Workshop Monetary Policy in Emerging Markets	Objective: to bring together leading experts and representatives of central banks, academic community, think tanks and international organizations to discuss issues related to monetary policy in emerging markets. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• financial stability and monetary policy amid a structural liquidity surplus</li> <li>• inflation expectations management and communication</li> <li>• coordination of fiscal and monetary policies</li> </ul> Participants: representatives of central banks, academic community, and international financial organizations

9	November, Kyiv, Ukraine, virtual	Annual International Roundtable Strategic Development and Change Management of Financial Sector Regulators	Objective: sharing and spreading the best practices in strategic response to the changing environment, introduction of innovations in central banks, in particular, the use of artificial intelligence tools in the organization's development strategy; strategic risk management, organization of the strategic plan implementation process and monitoring of the implementation status. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• examples of successful central bank transformation</li> <li>• sharing expertise on mistakes and successful examples in strategic management, including in the face of dynamic change</li> <li>• management of strategic risks</li> <li>• strategic approach to the introduction of artificial intelligence in the activities of central banks.</li> </ul> Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and financial sector regulators, international financial institution, participants of the previous roundtables, and international experts on strategic planning (up to 100 participants)
---	---	--	---